The window was trimmed in new brass color. A basket-vase of flowers from which a few petals had fallen. On the vase was a white cloth draped with flowers. Only four trimmed hats were in the window. A gable hat with the top of tan fancy satin straw faced with black velvet, large black maline bow and a wreath around the rim of small pink roses. A large white cloth draped with black ribbon velvet, with wreath of roses and foliage flat on the rim. It is also trimmed underneath the rim and has ties from one side. Deeds, Not Words

Norway People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills,

For Norway kidney sufferers,

Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Norway

people who have been cured to stay cured.

George H. Buswell, Marston St., Norway, Me., says:—"About six months ago

my kidneys became disordered and I suffered from pain across the small of my back. I felt languid nearly all the time and did not sleep well. The kidney secretions were scanty and unnatural

and I had a too frequent desire to void them. My body bloated at times and I was subject to dull headaches. Knowing of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills,

I procured a supply at Stone's Drug Store and began using them. They cured me and I am now free from kidney trouble."

Life's Open Road.

Written for the afflicted marriage anniversary of the late Mrs. J. A. Holden, Portland, March 18, 1912.

They say we live with years
The open road, the open sea;
That vain regret and unshed tears
Are vexing you and me.

Not so! while there is left a road to tread,
While there is a ship to spread sail,
The shining sun, the stars of night,
Still light the way along life's trail.

Tho' there are seas we shall not cross,
Tho' there are lands we may not know,
There's recompense for every loss
To those who stay and those that go.

Tho' back upon the broad highway
Lie youth and joy and young romance,
The sunrise wakes another day
And youth and joy are young again.

There come again the pastures green,
The singing birds, the budding trees;
The stream once more flows strong between
The mountains and the far off seas.

Then let us face the sunset's ray
With hearts still filled with courage high;
And fast unto the closing day
The hope and faith that cannot die.

So may we hold until life ends
The priceless love of old-time friends.
By mistake this beautiful original poem was omitted from the program of the entertainment at the Golden Wedding of J. L. Holden and wife, Oxford.

The Prodigal Girl.

We all have a heart for the Prodigal boy
Who was caught in sin's mid-way;
And welcome him back with songs of joy,
But what of the Prodigal girl?

For the girl who has done wrong,
And a father's bounteous care,
And though he is writhed, sick and poor,
He is still the father's dear.

But what of the girl who has gone astray?
Who has lost in the battle of sin,
Say, she has been the sweetest way
We've always forgiven him?

Does the door stand ajar? Is it to say
Come enter, you who have strayed;
I've been open since you went away
Now close to the second year?

Or with a hand of selfish pride
Do we close and lock the door;
And swear, while heaven and earth abide
She will enter here no more?

O Christ, it seems we have never learned
The lesson taught on the sand.
For even yet the woman is apart
And stands in a Christian land.

Down into the slough we hurl her back;
Then turn around with a smile
And welcome the boy from the sinful track,
Though his was the life most vile.

We all have a heart for the Prodigal boy
Who was caught in sin's mid-way;
And welcome him back with songs of joy,
But what of the Prodigal girl?

learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure has been known to cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the cause of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing her work.

This choir was the first of its kind to be organized in our village and has proved a great success. Much credit is due the girls and Mrs. Geo. Burnham under whose training they have been since fall.

The Sunday school orchestra is also under Mrs. Burnham's direction and shows wonderful proficiency for the length of time they have been organized. A specially pleasing feature of the program was the cornet solo by Frank Knapp and his encores, "Fair Harvard."

HARRISON.
There will be two special Easter services held at the Congregational church, Sunday.
In the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock there will be an Easter sermon by the pastor, C. N. Davis, and special music by a chorus of a dozen voices.
In the evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a concert given by the children. One special feature of the concert will be a solo by Mrs. Edith Burnham Bartlett from Boston. Mrs. Bartlett has a magnificent soprano voice, and has been taking private vocal lessons the past year of Mrs. Wilbur Haskell of Boston, who is considered one of the best vocal teachers in the city.

Free Baptist Church.
Palm Sunday was observed at the Free Baptist church with appropriate music and sermon. The pastor preached from the text—"Behold thy King cometh unto thee," found in Zach. 9:9. "The Palmes" sung by M. Walker as the pastor well rendered. There was a good attendance at the morning service and at the Sunday school.

Careful and thorough work is being done to make the Easter services a success. At the morning service in addition to the special sermon and music, four will be received into membership and fellowship of the church by letter. Following this, the Lord's Supper will be observed.

Concert in the evening at 8:30 o'clock. A program consisting of songs, solo recitations, tableaux, etc., by the children, and special music by the choir will be given. An offering for Home Missions will be made. The unique and beautiful all added much to the enjoyment of this hour.

The vestry has recently been thoroughly cleaned and put in good order by the ladies of the church. Maps and pictures for use in the Sunday school have been arranged on the walls so as to present an interesting and cheerful scene that is truly refreshing. The several classes in the S. S. are taking laudable pride at this time in their work. A beautiful banner was recently awarded the Young Peoples' class for excellence in attendance and collection.
